

ROLE PROFILE

Role Title:	Crime Analyst
Rank/Grade:	A4 (non supervisory)
Job Family:	Business Support
Reporting to:	A5 Senior Analyst
Main purpose of the role:	To collate and interpret information and make recommendations that support tactical and strategic decision making. Post holders will provide analytical support to police operations and investigations through explaining patterns, relationships, cause and effect. Crime Analysts will perform to National Occupational Standards and demonstrate competency in the nine analytical techniques as described by the National Intelligence Model. To contribute to achieving the Force vision, purpose and values.

Key Responsibilities

- Fully maximise information technology to identify a wide range of internal and external information sources and use analytical tools to represent complex data.
- Collect data and intelligence that identifies crime and disorder trends, hotspots, crimes series and offending behaviour upon which inferences must be developed about cause and effect.
- Provide useful analysis through reports and presentations, which contain recommendations that inform tactical and strategic decision making.
- Work with police and partners to develop recommendations and solutions to crime and disorder problems. Evaluate the effectiveness of pro-active operational activity and problem solving to develop effective recommendations based on good practice.
- Support police operations and investigations by analysing links in information upon which lines of enquiry are progressed. The analyst must participate in briefings and provide updates on findings or highlight information gaps.

Financial e.g. limits/mandates	Non-financial e.g. staff responsibility
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• None	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• None

Entry Requirements

- Well developed critical thinking and numeric skills
- Experience in data analysis and/or qualitative research skills
- Experience in working with customised databases, computer packages

Any other General Requirements/Scope

- The post holder will be required to use their own vehicle so the individual will need to ensure that they have business use cover within their insurance.
- The post holder may be required to work from different locations other than the home station.
- The post holder may be required to work additional hours but this will be agreed in advance in conjunction with management & the post holder.
- Vetting required, as advised by the vetting unit.
- The post holder will be expected to undertake training as and when required.
- The post holder will be expected to comply with health and safety requirements.

Obligatory Requirements

- Before commencement of this appointment, this role is subject to medical assessment. For some roles health screening or surveillance may be required on a regular basis, as identified by line manager risk assessments.
- There is a requirement for the role holder to meet the probationary objectives set.

ROLE PROFILE

Personal Qualities (Behavioural Competencies)

Serving the public

Demonstrates a real belief in public service, focusing on what matters to the public and will best serve their interests. Understands the expectations, changing needs and concerns of different communities, and strives to address them. Builds public confidence by talking with people in local communities to explore their viewpoints and break down barriers between them and the police. Understands the impact and benefits of policing for different communities, and identifies the best way to deliver services to them. Works in partnership with other agencies to deliver the best possible overall service to the public.

Openness to change

Positive about change, adapting rapidly to different ways of working and putting effort into making them work. Flexible and open to alternative approaches to solving problems. Finds better, more cost-effective ways to do things, making suggestions for change and putting forward ideas for improvement. Takes an innovative and creative approach to solving problems.

Service delivery

Understands the organisation's objectives and priorities, and how own work fits into these. Plans and organises tasks effectively, taking a structured and methodical approach to achieving outcomes. Manages multiple tasks effectively by thinking things through in advance, prioritising and managing time well. Focuses on the outcomes to be achieved, working quickly and accurately and seeking guidance when appropriate.

Professionalism

Acts with integrity, in line with the values and ethical standards of the Police Service. Takes ownership for resolving problems, demonstrating courage and resilience in dealing with difficult and potentially volatile situations. Acts on own initiative to address issues, showing a strong work ethic and demonstrating extra effort when required. Upholds professional standards, acting honestly and ethically, and challenges unprofessional conduct or discriminatory behaviour. Asks for and acts on feedback, learning from experience and developing own professional skills and knowledge. Remains calm and professional under pressure, defusing conflict and being prepared to step forward and take control when required.

Decision making

Gathers, verifies and assesses all appropriate and available information to gain an accurate understanding of situations. Considers a range of possible options before making clear, timely, justifiable decisions. Reviews decisions in the light of new information and changing circumstances. Balances risks, costs and benefits, thinking about the wider impact of decisions. Exercises discretion and applies professional judgement, ensuring actions and decisions are proportionate and in the public interest.

Working with others

Works co-operatively with others to get things done, willingly giving help and support to colleagues. Is approachable, developing positive working relationships. Explains things well, focusing on the key points and talking to people using language they understand. Listens carefully and asks questions to clarify understanding, expressing own views positively and constructively. Persuades people by stressing the benefits of a particular approach, keeps them informed of progress and manages their expectations. Is courteous, polite and considerate, showing empathy and compassion. Deals with people as individuals and addresses their specific needs and concerns. Treats people with respect and dignity, dealing with them fairly and without prejudice regardless of their background or circumstances.